Six Flaws In Charter, Is Contention

They Should Be Corrected Before Ratification, Senator Declares

WASHINGTON, July 3.—(P)—In one of the first open Senate breaks on the United Nations charter, Senator Bushfield (R-S.D.) declared today the document contains at least six flaws. These should be corrected, he told his colleagues, before the charter is ratified.

Although the first-term westerner asserted some of the provisions must be changed "for our national safety," he announced he would support the treaty because he could not face his soldier son "if I fail to do what I can to stop the senseless, maniacal slaughter and planned murder of my fellow men."

In a Senate speech, Bushfield listed these as "the jurisdictional faults in the new treaty":

1. "It delegates power which we have no authority to delegate to the security council to declare war.
2. "It places our sovereignty in the hands of foreigners because we have only one vote out of a necessary total of seven. This power must be referred to Congress in each case as it arises.
3. "It seeks by implication to delegate power to the American member of the Security Council to vote us into war without reference to Congress. This power must be strictly defined and limited by statute to congressional approval in each case as it arises.
4. "It grants to the Security Council power to regulate the size and kind of our armaments for national defense. No power on earth should dictate our defense, except the Congress.
5. "It destroys the Monroe Doctrine, which is the only fixed foreign policy America has ever had and leaves that foreign policy to a council of foreign nations.
6. "It scuttles the Pan American Union which we have spent fifty years in building among our American neighbors and makes it subject to the approval of European and Asiatic nations."

Bushfield said all the objections "can be corrected easily by the Senate," without harm to the treaty.

Most Senators Favorable
Senator Green (D-RI) said today there is more than a faint hope in the minds of some senators that the United Nations charter will be ratified unanimously.

Green is a member of the foreign relations committee which opens hearings next Monday on the history-making pact to preserve peace. He recalled to a reporter that he worked for the League of Nations 25 years ago, appearing at Senate hearings then as a private citizen.

"There is a different atmosphere now because the people are for it," he asserted. "Events have demonstrated that we can't live alone."

An Associated Press poll already has shown more than the necessary two-thirds majority ready to vote for the charter. No senator interviewed has come out against it.

Tract of Land Given DeMolay Council Votes To Secure A Dump Ground

Licenses And Other Business Up On Monday Night

KANSAS CITY, July 3.—(P)—An 800-acre tract of land located near Versailles, Mo., has been given the Grand Council of the Order of DeMolay by Dr. Blanch Duncan, Mercedes, Tex., for development as a national camp for boys. It was announced today by Frank S. Land, founder and secretary general of the order.

The camp is situated on State Highway No. 5, within one-fourth mile of the Lake of the Ozarks. It will be known as the Duncan National DeMolay Park.

It is the DeMolays' plan to develop the camp into a national training center in citizenship for young boys of America. Land said. Chandler C. Cohagen of Billings, Mont., architect, will draw plans for improvements at the camp, including an administration building, chapel, recreation building, mess hall and cabins.

The land has been in the Duncan family for the past fifty years, Land said.

State Highway Men Confer With Citizens

Study Plans For Rerouting Highway 65 and County Road

A proposed plan for re-routing highway 65, through Sedalia, is again up for discussion. Monday Mayor A. H. Wilks, met with C. W. Brown, chief engineer of the highway department. They talked over a postwar project for the proposition. Re-routing of 65 highway has been a subject for discussion for more than ten years, but nothing definite had been decided by the Missouri State highway department.

Accompanying Mr. Brown from the highway department were, H. M. Brush, district engineer, and G. A. Barth, assistant engineer, from District No. 4, of which Sedalia is a part, whose headquarters are in Kansas City, also P. H. Daniels, engineer of survey and plans. They all met with Mayor Wilks, city engineer James I. Collins, and T. H. Yount.

Mayor Wilks explained Mr. Yount participated in this meeting because he had been in the preliminary meeting on the proposed re-routing, and because of his contacts previously made with the highway department, when he was a city alderman.

Went Over Route
The Mayor and Mr. Brown talked over the federal and state aid for municipalities, regarding federal highways which enter such municipalities. The group also made a tour of some of the territory covered in the re-routing. It was explained the proposed "by-pass" route would join up with Highway 65 at Highway 50, known as the intersection of Broadway and Limit avenue. The route goes directly north over Limit avenue, to Main street. The rest of the route has several different connections, and these routings are to be given a survey by the state highway department before any definite decision is made.

Mayor Wilks made it plain the meeting Monday was only for a discussion, and to look over the territory and no definite decision had been made. He did indicate that if such a re-routing was decided upon, it would probably be No. 1 on Sedalia post-war projects, as to highways.

Meeting With County Men

Monday afternoon Mr. Brown with W. J. Shuten, of the state highway department, Jefferson City, met with the Pettis County road commission, members of the Pettis county court, and a delegation of farmers from the southern part of the county to discuss a proposed road project in the south part of Pettis county.

One group is asking the state highway department to maintain the present Green Ridge road, and add improvements, while another delegation desires the state to build an east-west road connecting on the present road and make it a farm-to-market road.

Mr. Brown explained a decision on this road should be made by the county commission and the county court, then their recommendations submitted to the state highway commission for either approval or rejection. This recommendation must come from the county commission. Mr. Brown explained to make it in accordance with the state law, "Petitions". Mr. Brown said, "have little bearing on the state commission, inasmuch as they do not conform with state law."

No decision was made Monday afternoon by the county commissioners regarding the proposed farm-to-market road from Sedalia to Green Ridge.

Library Closes Wednesday

The Sedalia public library will be closed all day Wednesday, July 4.

Two of Rescued Trio Saved By Army Medics

Adventure Ends As Last White Man Leaves Shangri-La

By Ralph Morton

HOLLANDIA, New Guinea, July 1.—(Delayed)—(P)—The last white man came back from New Guinea's hidden valley of Shangri-La today, a weird, towering figure with six weeks' growth of beard and a flaming bird of paradise headdress.

He was handsome Capt. Cecil Walters, leader of the expedition that parachuted into trackless jungles to rescue a pretty Wac and two airmen companions who crashed just seven weeks ago.

The great adventure ended as the glider carrying Walters and the last three of his ten Filipino paratroopers rolled to a halt on Hollandia's air strip.

Shortly after his arrival Walters was shown pictures of Grand valley, discovered in 1938 by the Richard Archibald expedition, and was asked whether in his opinion it was Shangri-La.

Not Grand Valley
"Grand valley is certainly not the one we were in," he declared emphatically. The American museum of natural history in New York, sponsor of the Archibald expedition, had expressed belief they were the same.

He said two of the rescued trio—Wac Cpl. Margaret Hastings of Owego, N. Y., and Sgt. Kenneth Decker of Kelso, Wash.—would have died without treatment administered by two medics, S. Sgt. Benjamin Bulato of San Francisco and Cpl. Camilo Ramirez of Ormoc, Leyte, P. I.

The third of the rescued group, was Lt. John B. McCollom of Trenton, Mo.

Both Lt. McCollom and Cpl. Hastings are scheduled for furlough home.

Citizens Back City Officials

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., July 3.—(P)—More than two hundred persons today had voluntarily contributed an average of a dollar each to pay expenses of City Health Engineer Claude E. Murray and Chief of Police Will J. Sims who have been ordered to appear in United States District Court at St. Louis Thursday to give reasons why they shall not be cited for contempt of court.

The court action was taken after the two officers refused to permit two OPA investigators to enter a frozen food locker here and handle the food stored there without first obtaining health certificates, as required by city ordinance.

"We believe we are right," said Murray, and nearly everybody in Poplar Bluff insists we are right in our efforts to prevent possible spread of disease through the food which is so scarce right now."

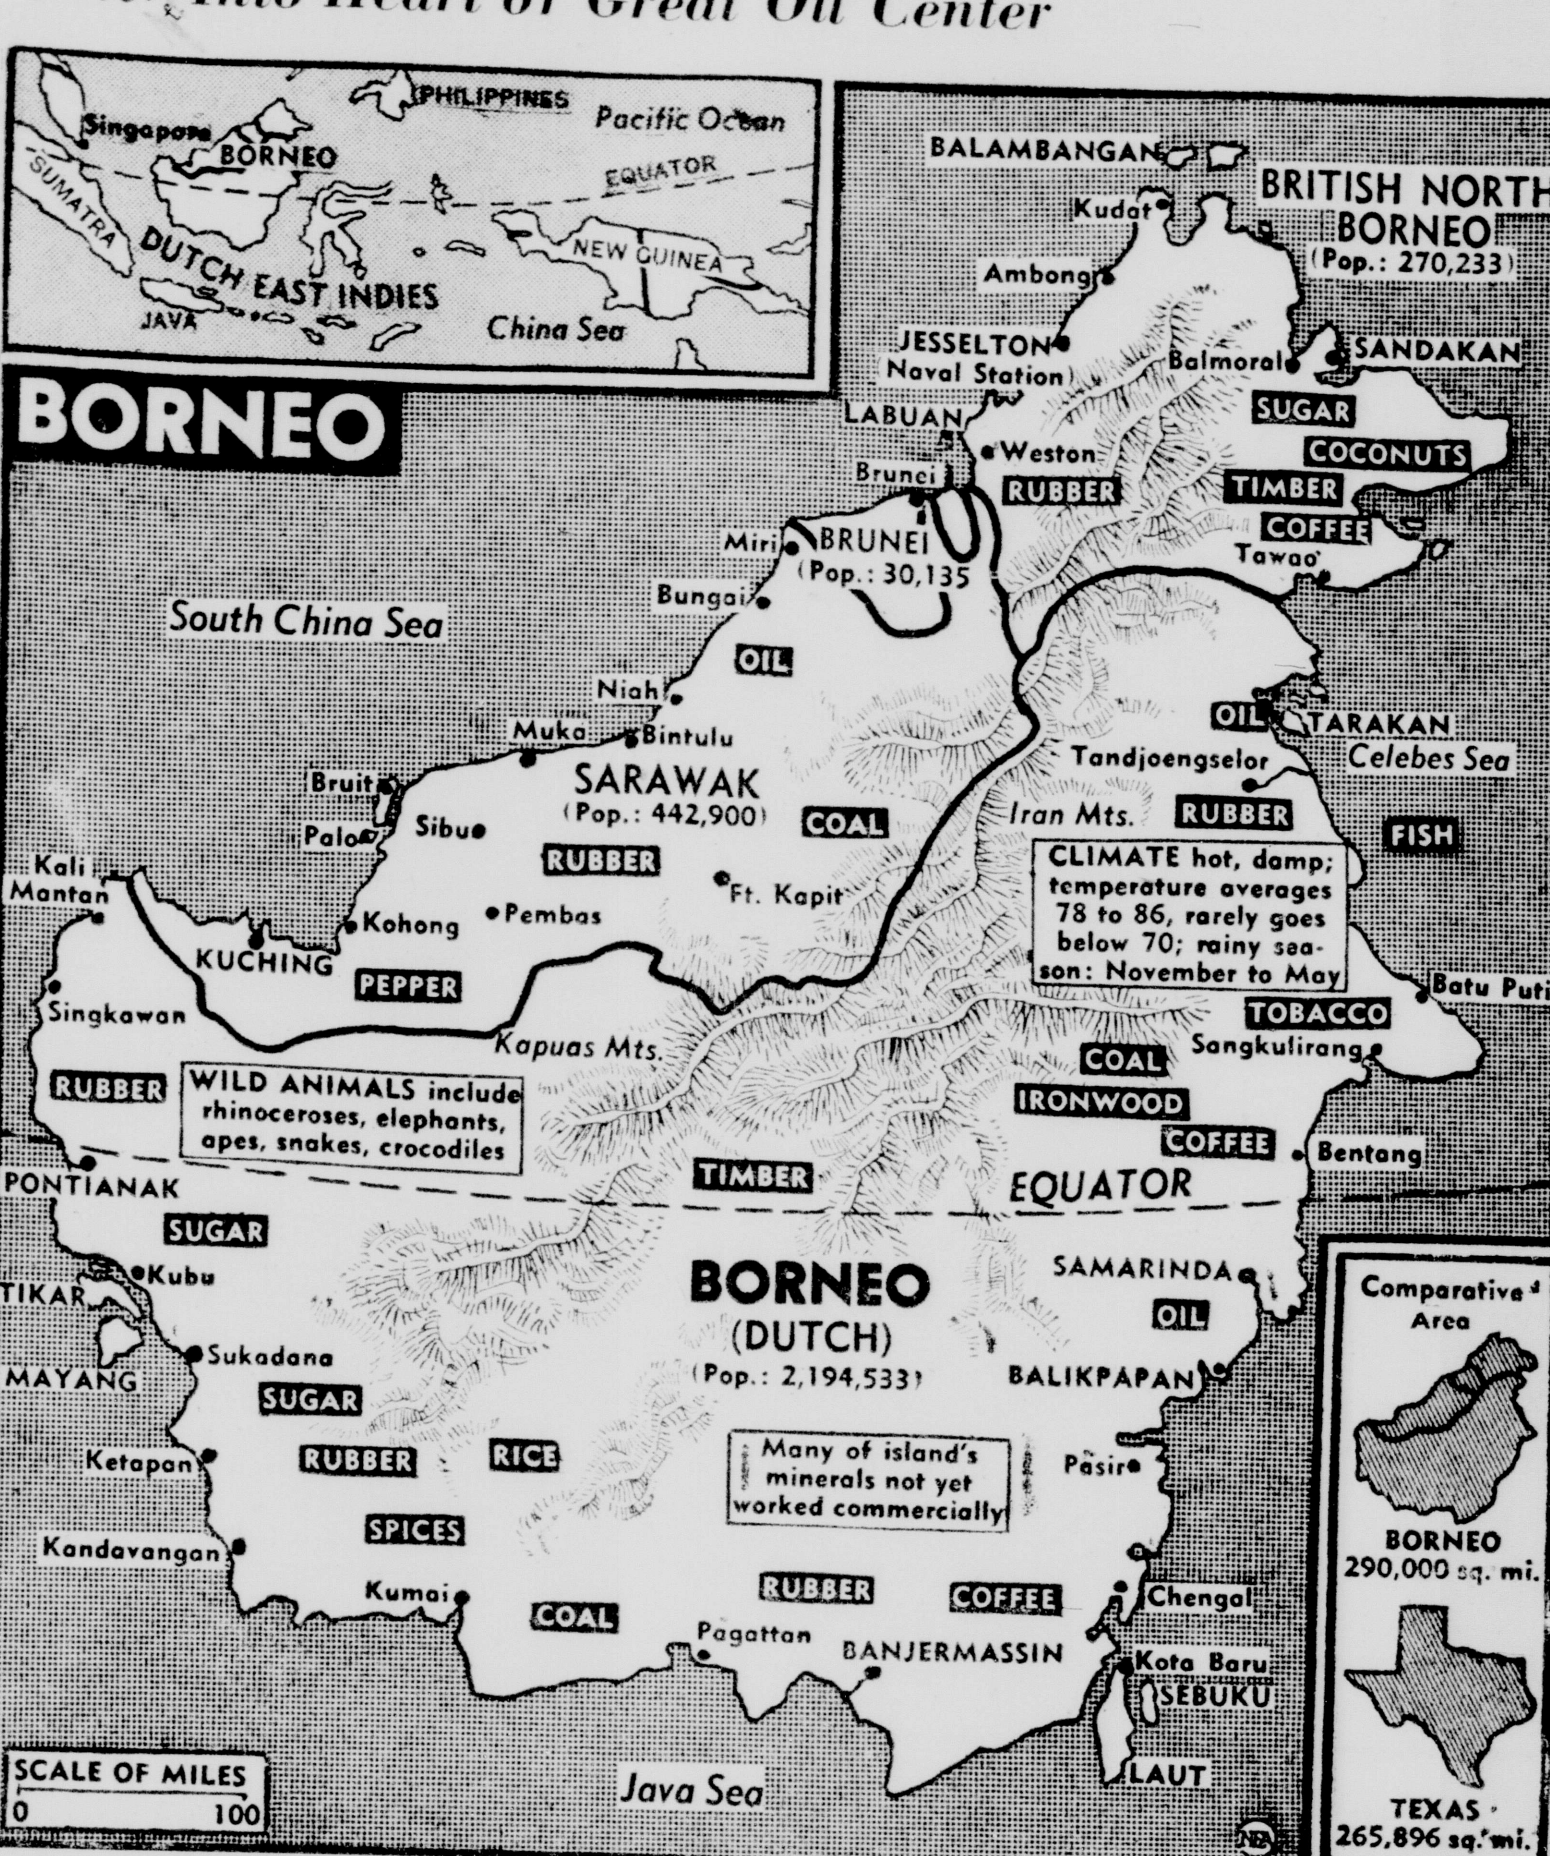

They were ordered to appear in court before Federal Judge S. Osgate.

Rubey Hulen after owners of the food locker had been enjoined from interfering with the OPA agents, Murray contended the injunction did not include him.

Murray said he had been advised at least two St. Louis attorneys have volunteered their assistance.

Injured While Dusting
ST. LOUIS, July 3.—(P)—Mrs. Jane Clark, 22, was seriously wounded while dusting a chest of drawers yesterday.

William Burns, On Ship Lost, October, 1944

Was Prisoner Of Japanese, Taken In Manila Bay

Mrs. Mary Burns, 1720 South Park avenue, has received word from the Navy department that her son, William Burns, chief boatswain's mate, U. S. N., who was taken prisoner by the Japanese in Manila Bay, Philippine Islands, on May 12, 1942, lost his life on October 24, 1944, when a prisoner of war ship was sunk off the coast of China.

Burns, who was born May 22, 1907, at Spring Fork, son of the late Oliver Burns and Mary Burns, enlisted in the U. S. navy October 23, 1925. Surviving him besides his mother are two brothers, Elmer and Alfred Burns of Sedalia, a half-sister, Mrs. Albert E. Lueck of Sedalia, and a half brother, Edward Ray.

The letter from H. B. Atkinson, Commander, U. S. N. R., officer in charge of the casualty section, follows in part:

Message Received
"Dear Mrs. Burns: Your son, William Burns, Chief Boatswain's Mate, United States Navy, has been carried on the official records of the Navy department as a prisoner of war.

"A full review of all evidence pertaining to the status of your son has been made. It has been ascertained that on 11 October 1944, your son who had been held captive by the Japanese in the Bilidid Prisoner of War Camp, Philippine Islands, was placed on board a Japanese freighter, apparently enroute to Japan.

"The ship was anchored in the cove of an island about 200 to 300 miles from Manila for about six days before it returned to Manila on 20 October 1944 and from there, in a convoy of Japanese ships, proceeded in a general northward direction. On 24 October 1944, this ship, which bore no mark to indicate it was carrying prisoners of war, was torpedoed and sunk off (Please turn to page 2 column 4)

Court Action on Machinery Is Preparatory to Post-War Plan

"The Pettis County court is preparing for post-war improvements," Judge J. V. Kesterson, presiding judge of the county court, said today in discussing the court's action in authorizing him to sign an order with the War Production Board for a permit to purchase road machinery when needed.

Judge Kesterson explained the order is not for immediate purchase of road machinery but to secure a priority permit which will enable the county to obtain the equipment when the court feels that it is needed. He also explained the county engineer, Fritz Greissen at the present time is unable to obtain help to maintain and operate the machinery the county has on hand at the present time.

"As a matter of fact the county engineer at the present time has only two employees," Judge Kesterson explained, "and the county court would like to see a much larger employment of help under the engineer for the building and improvement of the county roads."

Preparedness Action

Judge Kesterson also stated, "The county court is opposed to investing thousands of dollars in equipment when we are unable to employ men to use the equipment now on hand. But we want to be prepared in case the war ends suddenly and the boys begin to return home, so we can take care of those who desire employment in this type of work."

Therefore the court has decided to obtain this permit so we will not be held up in obtaining machinery if and when it is needed."

The permit, which is being sought, gives the court the right to purchase the machinery from any company they desire to deal with, instead of being such it binds the court to purchasing it from any specified machinery company.

Slip Of A Girl 'Throws Him'

LOS ANGELES, July 3.—(P)—A lithe, 16-year-old girl applied a judo hold on a 180-pound saddle maker, tossed him into the air and slammed him—kerplunk!

—right in the middle of Judge Frank Carrell's courtroom floor. The girl, Margaret Tanico, had the husky Douglas McLean, 29, arrested on assault charges. She claimed that while taking her home on his motorcycle a week ago, he attempted to force his attentions upon her.

On that occasion, she said she threw McLean with a similar hold, then fled.

McLean pooh-poohed her claim, telling officers: "If a slip of a girl like that can throw me, I'll plead guilty."

Yesterday Judge Carrell ordered the girl to demonstrate. "That's just how I did it last week, your honor," she told the court as McLean sheepishly picked himself up off the courtroom floor.

McLean didn't plead guilty, and the judge took the matter under advisement.

Drive Into Suburbs Of Balikpapan

Two Airfields Already Taken In Invasion; Japanese Food Supply Low

By Leonard Millman
Associated Press War Editor

Japanese were told today to tighten their belts and prepare to eat food made from Mulberry leaves and potato vines as Allied bombers knocked out 28 more ships trying to run tightening Allied blockades.

Tokyo announced Japan's already meager basic food supply would soon be cut ten per cent until the fall harvest. Nipponese scientists were reported pushing experiments to develop starches "to ease the critical food situation" from 19 different plants, including the mulberry leaf on which silk-worms fed in pre-war days.

"Nippon's equally vital oil supply, essential food for mechanized armies and air forces, was cut severely by Australian ground forces on Borneo and B-29s making their third strike in a week against homeland refineries this morning."

Australian troops have driven into the suburbs of Balikpapan, Borneo's greatest oil center. Australian broadcasts reported the Sepinggang and Manggar airfields have already been captured in the three-day-old invasion. This would give the Aussie Seventh division control over a 12-mile length of the Balikpapan area. Official announcements said they held a three by two mile area.

Campaign Successful

"Strategically," said Lieut. Gen. Sir Leslie J. Morehead, Australian corps commander, "the campaign was won in the first few hours" when his diggers seized a ridge overlooking Balikpapan's flaming refinery.

Reinforced, tank-led Aussies—Tokyo said there were 7,000 men ashore led by 52 tanks—pushed inland against increasing resistance and drove toward the burning heart of Balikpapan.

The advance was halted temporarily yesterday when a storage tank burst open like a volcano, and poured rivers of flaming oil down ravines.

Oil fires were started on Japan's mainland before dawn today by 59 Superforts. They dropped demolition bombs in a precision strike on the Maruzen oil refinery, 35 miles from Osaka. Towering columns of black smoke, returning raiders said, made them confident they wouldn't "have to go back there again."

(In Washington, a communique from 20th Air Force headquarters said the Maruzen mission was flown without loss. Crews reported meager and inaccurate anti-aircraft fire at the target and no enemy air opposition, the communique said.)

It was the second B-29 raid in 24 hours, the sixth in eight days and only one of several reported by Tokyo today. Two -29s were lost in yesterday's record 600-plane fire raid on four cities. All but two airmen were rescued.

Photographs Give Results

A total of 117 square miles of Japanese industrial cities have been knocked out by B-29s, Superfort headquarters announced after studying photographs of four cities hit last Friday, including the Sasebo naval base.

Tokyo's unconfirmed reports of new B-29 blows included extensive mine-sowing operations in the Japan sea; a midnight fire strike at Kainan, 50 miles southwest of Osaka and a 17-plane raid on Kumamoto or Kyushu island yesterday afternoon, 12 hours after it was hit in the 600-plane attack.

Tokyo warned that large numbers of new crack interceptor planes would soon attack the big raiders. Kyushu, southernmost island of Japan, was reported ready for the next American invasion with every islander "determined to die to the last man."

Evacuating Base

At the other extremity of the empire, non-essential civilians were ordered evacuated from the Singapore naval base, now threatened by the Australian hold on Borneo.

"Between these two points where Tokyo expects invasions, Allied bombers sank 28 vessels, mostly small freighters and tugboats, Gen. Douglas MacArthur reported his bombers blew up an alcohol plant at Heito, finishing the job of eliminating 90 per cent of Formosa's alcohol production."

Today's Fight Is for Rights First Won by Men of '76

Signing of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776.

Independence Day, 1945, is not what we used to call a "safe and sane Fourth." Sanity and safety left the world in September, 1939, and madness and danger have piled one upon the other in the intervening years. Yet today the world can see ahead to the return of a safe and sane life in which liberty and the pursuit of happiness can conceivably become again the unquestioned right of millions rather than an ideal challenged by the forces of brutality.

Blood and toil have already won back the continent of Europe from vassalage and freed its people from the violence of war after nearly six years of nightmare. Blood and toil are pushing back another might force whose grandiose scheme of slavery had enveloped huge territories on the other side of the world.

Today millions of many tongues and colors fight for the same cause that a few thousands battled for in the war of American independence. They fight to re-affirm self-evident truths stated with inspired clarity by the men of 1776—truths which other men read and believed and won through suffering in after years.

In the last six tragic years those truths have been contested more bitterly than at any time since they were uttered and because men once more have fought and died for them, they have taken on new meaning. Freedom and equality, life and liberty, again are rights to be defended, not taken for granted.

Independence Day is no longer an exuberant holiday for Americans. Some of their sons will die today but they will die in the fight for freedom and independence. But because they do, it may be that in another year we may join together thankfully in a "safe and sane Fourth."

Beautiful" and "Count Your Blessings."

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Guests were: Mrs. Don Wheeler, Valetta Wheeler, Mrs. "Bud" Wheeler, Mrs. Frank Breon and children, Mrs. Will Farrell, Mrs. W. E. Walker, Mrs. Nora Thompson, Miss Apt and Miss Bybee.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. B. L. Rogers on July 26.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner, Jr., of 1804 South Kentucky avenue entertained at a 7 o'clock supper in honor of Mr. Gardner's brother, S 2/c Wayne P. Gardner, who is home on a twenty-day leave after seventeen months in the service, fifteen of which have been overseas.

Guests at the supper were: J. S. Gardner, Sr., J. E. Waller, S 2/c and Mrs. Wayne Gardner and sons, Larry, Pat and Bobbie, all of LaMonte, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gardner and daughter, Rosalee, Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips and son, Jimmy and Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner, all of Sedalia, Miss Donna Jean Martin of Smithton and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Boyd of Knob Noster.

On Sunday S 2/c Gardner was guest of honor at a chicken dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Phillips Route 1, after which the following guests went to Warsaw: Mr. and Mrs. Dale Phillips and children, Billy Dale and Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gardner and Rosalee, Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Phillips, Route 1, after which the Elmeta Marshall, all of Sedalia, Miss Donna Jean Martin of Smithton and S 2/c and Mrs. Gardner and sons, Bobbie, Patrick and Larry, of LaMonte.

ON THE Congressional FRONT

By Marion T. Bennett
The truth about President Roosevelt's pre-election physical condition was finally revealed in Washington last week. He had several strokes prior to the one which proved fatal. The late president was first stricken in the late summer of 1933 at Rochester, Minn., more than six years before his fatal attack. He was then at the Mayo Clinic. Other light attacks followed through the years. The first serious stroke came in late 1943. No hint of his condition was given to the nation until March 1944 when Aubrey Williams, head of NYA, after a conference at the White House stated that he was shocked by the chief executive's appearance. The president's health was a closely guarded secret even though Dr. Howard Gerald Bruenn, a New York City heart specialist was commissioned a commander in the navy late in 1942 for the express purpose of watching FDR. Bruenn was with him when he died. FDR suffered considerably and was unable to fulfill the duties of his office for days at a time. He took long secret vacations and spent much time at Hyde Park, while affairs of the nation drifted along. On Palm Sunday, last March 25, the president had a cerebral hemorrhage at Hyde Park. He survived the stroke and was quietly rushed to Warm Springs where April 12, 19 days later he had the fatal stroke. During the final months of his life the president consulted many physicians who found him suffering from general deterioration. Knowing his days were numbered the president some time before had specified in his will the details of the funeral he desired and had drawn plans for his memorial. Vice-Admiral Ross T. McIntire, White House physician, who had pronounced the late president fit to run in the 1944 campaign and had frequently issued statements reporting him to be in excellent condition, was not with him when he died. This navy doctor will probably be shifted to other duties and a new White House physician selected soon.

Yanks Boot A Chance To Set A New Record

That of Leaving Men On Bases; Snap A 5-Game Losing Streak

By Ted Meier
Associated Press Sports Writer

The second place Yankees of the American League who are kicking the ball around on their current western trip, reached the point yesterday where they booted a chance to set a new major league record for leaving men on base. The Yanks have committed 17 errors in nine games.

Going into the eighth inning of the second game with the White Sox at Chicago's Comiskey Park it seems a cinch the McCarthy men would wipe out the present mark of 18 stragglers. They had 16 runners marooned in the first seven innings.

In the eighth, however, only one man was left and Bud Metheny cut short even a chance to tie the record by grounding into a double play in the ninth which retired the Yanks with the sacks clean.

The Yanks were happy, though, for despite leaving 17 stranded, they snapped a five-game losing streak by beating the Sox, 6 to 1. Bill Zuber scattered seven hits while the Yanks rapped three Chicago twirlers for 12 hits and were aided by 11 walks, one hit baseman and two errors.

The Sox moved into third place by taking the opener, 11 to 6, behind Ed Lopat as the Yanks made five errors. Four runs in the fourth and five in the fifth made it a runaway for Jimmy Dyke's men.

Chicago, although losing the second game, retained third place when Mike Kreevich, virtually single-handed, dropped the Boston Red Sox from third to fourth as he sparked the St. Louis Browns to a double win, 7 to 1 and 3 to 2.

Kreevich, Browns' centerfielder, socked a base-full home run in the opener to back up Sig Jakucki's five-hit pitching. In the afterpiece he came up in the ninth with the Browns behind, 2 to 1, and doubled home the tying and winning runs. It was his only hit of the second game and spoiled Randy Heflin's bid for victory in his first starting role after two years in the navy. He had held the Browns to three hits for eight innings, but yielded three more in the ninth.

The Washington-Cleveland game and the St. Louis-New York game in the National were rained out. All the other clubs had an open date.

by DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, July 3—Farm lobby chiefs, among the most powerful in Washington, were put in their place during a hot, behind-the-scenes fight inside the war mobilization advisory board last week over the question of giving the Secretary of Agriculture super-power to regulate food prices.

The War Mobilization advisory board, chaired by North Carolina's ex-governor O. Max Gardner, is composed of farmer, business, labor, and public representatives. It has done an A-1 job. Usually Governor Gardner has reconciled conflicting differences, and recently the board passed a resolution okaying the extension of OPA for another year with no crippling amendments.

But when the board session opened last week War Mobilizer Vinson immediately challenged Ed O'Neal, head of the Farm Bureau Federation, and Albert Goss, head of the National Grange, for going counter to the board's resolution and favoring the crippling OPA amendment by which the Secretary of Agriculture could override OPA prices on food.

Ed O'Neal murmured something about not having favored such an amendment, but Judge Vinson immediately challenged him. "Oh, yes, you did," he shot back. "You sent a telegram to the hill (Capitol Hill) supporting that amendment."

"It seems to me," reproved Eric Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, coming to Vinson's support, "that if any group represented on this board agrees to a resolution adopted by the board, it should not go out and inform congress to the contrary without coming back and telling us that it has changed its mind. That is the only fair way of doing things."

Farm Bloc Defeated
"We passed a resolution that the Economic Stabilization Act should be continued for one year without crippling amendments," reminded Nathaniel Dyke, who represents small business on the board, "and then you turn around and urge congress to pass a crippling amendment."

"We didn't propose a crippling amendment," replied Albert Goss of the Grange, who by this time was getting a little huffy. "We just wanted to see that the OPA act was administered more efficiently."

At this, non-farmer members of the board snorted, but kept their tempers.

"How would you like to have business go over the head of OPA and set its own prices?" replied Eric Johnston.

"Yes, how would you like the U. S. Chamber of Commerce to be able to override OPA when it comes to setting business prices?" asked Nat Dyke. "And how would you like to have Phil Murray over there set wages, regardless of the stabilization act?"

That ended the argument. Except that forthright Fred Vinson put the same general thought before congress and finally succeeded in eliminating the amendment whereby the Secretary of Agriculture could put farm prices in a preferred position. Judge Vinson, long one of the most respected and popular members of congress, has done more to cement relations between congress and the executive branch than any other man, not excluding Jimmy Byrnes.

Churchill's 'Memoirs'
Friends of the late president who are anxious for Truman to go over big at his forthcoming Big Three talk tell this story about the Yalta and Teheran conferences.

Roosevelt, when he returned, told friends how, in discussing different topics with Churchill and Stalin, he would usually make the first presentation of the case. This took three to five minutes. Then Stalin would give his views, which also took three to five minutes.

"Then," said Roosevelt, "Churchill would present his memoirs—lasting 30 minutes."

White House advisers are wondering how Truman can avoid the Churchill "memoirs" when he goes to Berlin.

MacArthur and Tydings
The other day, handsome Senator Tydings of Maryland devoted considerable time on the Senate floor to berating this columnist for speculating on why Tydings returned from the Philippines after five days, when he expected to remain five weeks. No specific reason was offered by this writer for Tydings' sudden return. He had made his abrupt decision after conferring with General MacArthur.

Since then, further information is available. And at the risk of further denials and further waste of the taxpayers' money in paying for the Maryland senator's fulminations in the Congressional Record, here are the facts behind Tydings' sudden departure.

General MacArthur is convinced that the strongest political group in the Philippines today is the Filipino underground, the men who stayed and resisted the Japs. As in European countries, the exiled governments have lost their popularity.

WE SAY GOODBYE
XX

BRINGING 'em back alive calls for different kind of equipment than we had. We called off the hunt and told our guide to get us back to the lodge in the shortest and quickest possible way. It was then about 11 in the morning. By sundown he had brought us out of the jungle onto a fairly good dirt road that paralleled the Brahmaputra River on its meandering course to within a few miles of Vince's lodge.

All the way back Gingsiss and Tony and I carried our baby leopards in our laps, and by the time we climbed down out of our saddles along about midnight we needed clean, dry clothes worse than we had. We had never needed them before. In the days to come we were to learn that the leopard kittens were a feeding problem, but at no time in their lives, right from that first day, did they ever have any trouble with elimination.

The cats were as tired as their captors by the time we reached the lodge. After they each had a supper of milk—which we dripped into their tiny mouths from the tip of a spoon—they were perfectly content to curl up again with their ferocious little heads on each other's bellies.

Sound asleep on a thick Oriental rug, which we took from the living room for that purpose and put in the butler's quarters. With them safely stowed away, Gingsiss and Tony and I sat down to our own midnight snack. Until the small hours of the morning, we sat talking about what we were going to do with our charges.

than a few months—possibly even days. Wacky pilots don't last long anywhere, and on the trans-Himalaya run only the very best pilots survive. I wasn't in that category there anymore, and the best thing I could do for myself and my crews and the C. N. A. C. was to clear out before that one inevitable overdose of oxygen destroyed one of their invaluable planes, and took the lives of a promising young co-pilot and an expert radio operator, as well as my own.

It was goodbye to a wonderful bunch of boys—courageous, hard-working lads who liked their jobs and the thrills they entailed just as much as I did; who liked to laugh and drink and play cards; who liked carousing and singing and women—and who day after day risked their lives on the toughest, roughest airline route in the world not because they had to but because they wanted to.

Gingsiss and I were afraid that it was going to be goodbye to Tony Mercede, too, because during the first week of waiting for word from him in Calcutta we heard nothing. Finally we went ahead with our own plans, arranging transportation to Karachi and Bombay and by liner across the Arabian Sea to Durbin, South Africa. From there we would take the train to Cape Town, where we hoped to get passage on a convoy or troopship returning to the States. Two days before we were to leave by plane for Karachi we received word from Tony that he would join us in Calcutta on the fifteenth. Al Privensal brought the message, having arranged to spend a few days with us in the city before we left, and we sent word to Tony through the pilot who had brought Pri down that we would meet him in Karachi instead. Then Gingsiss and Pri and I started making the rounds of the bars and night clubs and theaters. Two days later we shook hands at the airport, and Gingsiss and I and our leopard kittens began the long journey home.

How To Celebrate Independence Day
The men down at Sam Abernathy's store were talking about what they were going to do on the Fourth of July. Ed Carey said that his missus, Sarah, had been after him to fix a leak in their roof. Dan Culpin figured he'd just sit out under a tree, if it's a nice day, and write a long letter to his boy out in the Pacific somewhere. Homer Bentley and some of the other fellows said they were going to have a picnic.
But all of them agreed that if they didn't get anything else done, they'd buy an extra War Bond to help the Seventh War Loan campaign along.
From where I sit, that's the best way to insure the independence we won so long ago and that we're fighting again to preserve... independence for ourselves and for the other fellow, no matter how different his views may be from ours.

Serving On USS Nevada

Myron S. Gray, aviation machinist's mate 2/c, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie B. Gray, Windsor, Mo.; Samuel E. Jones, ship's serviceman barber, USN, whose wife lives at 774 South English, Marshall, Mo., and James S. Beatty, water tender 1/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beatty of Blairtown, Mo. are serving on the battleship Nevada, which has written a blazing chapter in the history of World War II.
The only battleship to get under way during the Jap attack on Pearl Harbor, she cleared the blazing U. S. S. Arizona and through a sea of flaming oil, passed by the U. S. S. Oklahoma. Nearing the Pearl Harbor entrance channel, she avoided Jap planes' attempts to sink her and block the channel by running aground in shallow water.
She supported troop landing operations at Attu, participated in the Normandy invasion and the invasion of southern France and after refitting in New York returned to the Pacific where her guns covered the operations against Iwo Jima.
She is now older than many of her crew. Her keel was laid down November 4, 1912, in the Fore River Shipyard, Quincy, Mass., and she was commissioned at the Charlestown Navy Yard March 12, 1916.

Feuds In The German Staff Are Prolonged

Continue Even After Officers Are Held In Captivity

By George Tucker
WIESBADEN, Germany, July 3.—(P)—Feuds and bitter personal animosities that split the German general staff during the final phases of the war did not end with the capitulation, but instead are being continued with vigor in captivity, it was learned Monday.
Most of the general staff, headed by Field Marshal Karl Rudolf Gerd Von Rundstedt, has been assembled on an acre of ground in the home of the late Gen. Diego Von Bergen, former German ambassador to the Holy See. Individual members are being interrogated there. Already the officers have fallen into two cliques with each ignoring the presence of the other.
When Gen. George Von Thomas arrived he received a note from Von Rundstedt asking him to forget an earlier incident in which the field marshal had presided over a Wehrmacht court of honor hearing from Von Thomas and others. The field marshal explained that only his sense of military duty had made him preside over the court.

Tossed Away Note
Von Thomas, in the presence of his American captors, read the note and tossed it into a wastebasket, saying "tell General Von Rundstedt I neither wish to see him nor to speak with him."
The cleavage dates to the Hitler bomb plot last July which resulted in the hanging of Field Marshal Erwin Von Witzleben and a sentence to a concentration camp for Von Thomas and others.
Another ranking officer being detained at "the generals' house," as the rendezvous is called, is Gen. Franz Halder, former German chief of staff. At the time of the Sudetenland crisis he headed a panzer division which he said had orders to move into Berlin and kill or capture Hitler.
Von Rundstedt and his clique have different sittings at dinner than the clique represented by Von Thomas and Halder. They pass one another sometimes under the trees in the yard, but do not speak.
Before Von Rundstedt arrived Field Marshal Ewald Von Kleist was the ranking officer and customarily sat at the head of the table. He sat there the night Von Rundstedt arrived, but Von Rundstedt moved in and gradually swept him aside.
At this time Von Kleist also occupied a room that opened into the only bathroom in their section of the house. The other generals didn't dare go through Von Kleist's room, but washed their hands in the kitchen sink.
"It was nothing to see half a dozen generals standing around in the kitchen waiting their turn," an American officer said.

The Best Kind Of Fireworks
The grandest fireworks that the nation can indulge in on this Fourth of July will be the flames and sparks and the roar of machines produced by patriotic workers who forego the holiday and stay on the job as their contribution toward the earliest defeat of Japan. They'll be complying with the earnest request of War Production Chief J. A. Krug, who points out that our "formidable and tenacious enemy must be crushed utterly before we can revert to the ways of peace and luxury of national holidays."

Looking Backward Forty Years Ago

About 20 children were in attendance at the "story hour" at the library this morning. Miss Smith told something of the life of Nathaniel Hawthorne, the anniversary of whose birthday occurs July 4, and read some of his stories for children—"The Dragon's Teeth," "The Great Stone Face" and a little from "Grandfather's Chair."
R. J. Hess lost a large barn by fire on the farm managed by him at Wanamaker, over the line in Saline county early Sunday morning, with a total loss of all the contents, including 20 sets of harness, two buggies, a large lot of feed tools, farm implements and other items. It is believed lightning was the cause of the fire.

Second Cost $20,000 In Suit

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 3.—(P)—One second cost Mrs. Nadine Murphy $20,000 as the result of a Missouri supreme court ruling Monday.
The court reversed a $20,000 judgment awarded Mrs. Nadine Murphy as damages for personal injuries and the death of her husband, Pat, in a railroad crossing accident at Edgerton, Kas., July 1, 1942. The car in which they were riding was hit by a Santa Fe passenger train while the driver was trying to back it off the tracks.
"When the train was three seconds away," the court said, "a maximum of only two seconds was required to drive the car off, hence the driver had a margin of safety sufficient to have enabled her to back off the track before the collision occurred and which the driver negligently failed to do."

15th Air Force Men Back Home

CHARLESTON, S. C., Port of Embarkation—Twenty-eight airmen from Missouri, all members of heavy bomber crews of the 15th Army Air Force in Italy, arrived here June 26 by transport plane en route home for 30-day furloughs.
Brig. Gen. James T. Duke, commander of this Transportation Corps port, stated the eleven officers and the seventeen enlisted men in the group will be on their way by train to the Jefferson Barracks, Mo., Reception Center within 24 hours. They will be granted their furloughs there.
While here, they were processed, furnished new clothing and given a luncheon feast. Telephone and telegraph facilities were available for first calls home. They were part of a group of 1063 airmen who spanned the South Atlantic from bases in Italy in seven days flying 100 heavy bombers and transport planes.
After their furloughs, almost all the men will report to Drew Field, Tampa, Fla., where they will be assigned to units leaving for the Pacific.
The Missouri men include Second Lieut. Eugene B. Nail, 923 East Tenth street, Sedalia.

To End Spain's Church Events

U. S., Britain And France To Break Up Single Control

WASHINGTON, July 3.—(P)—The Allies are about to end Spain's control of Tangier, where Francisco Franco made a grab to dominate the Straits of Gibraltar when it seemed that Britain had lost the war.
The plan is to work out a British-French-United States program for restoring the strategic stretch of the northwest African coast to its former international status, and then tell Franco how it is going to be done.
That is the purpose of conversations in Paris which the state department announced today will get under way immediately. Russia may come into the picture too. The British foreign office said the Soviet Union had asked to be included in the talks and the request is being considered.
With France crumbling before Nazi armies and Britain seemingly headed for the same fate, Franco moved Spanish troops into the international area June 14, 1940. He announced his action as intended to preserve the "neutrality" of the 147 square mile area, only 29 miles from Gibraltar.
Monday's State Department announcement was bluntly worded, mentioning that Franco moved in "by unilateral action," and stating that in view of the end of the European war "there no longer appears to be any justification for the continued occupation by the Spanish of the international zone."

NOW MEET a man who could walk at the rate of 135 miles a day... Captain Robert Barclay of Ury, England. In 1808 he bet he could walk one mile every hour for 1,000 consecutive hours. The amazing thing is he did it! Imagine... one mile during each hour, day and night, for 41 days and 16 hours.
But Captain Barclay's feet hurt, and plenty... Now that cars are wearing out at an alarming rate, many ex-motorists are unhappy about their feet, too.
Every mile you drive speeds the day when your own car will wear out and quit... UNLESS it gets the professional care that can check needless wear.
